Discussion for Brooklyn Fashion Week began among local designers soon after the Brooklyn Chamber of Commerce abandoned the Brooklyn Style Program. In 2003 it was again broached in 2005 We had our first group fashion event 20 venues signed on 12 venues executed their event with 2000 attendees and more importantly shoppers. The URI was secured late 2005/6 as discussions escalated to ensure that Brooklyn fashion remain open and accessible to all. The core group which eventually developed into the Brooklyn Fashion Gallery. has explore every traditional and emerging form of fashion presentation. While there has been discussions as to an official Brooklyn Fashion group We believe and are committed to a democratic process . We haves at at the table when Invited and will continue to do so. We are proud of brooklyn's past history as well as new emerging design companies.
